MINUTES

Present: Captain Canfield, Chairman Rogato

David Breger will be attending the meeting in case the Board has any questions about his Application for Liberty Mall

David approached the board and he let the License Board know about his new business that he is opening up on Union Ave it will be a used flea market type store and he also offers cash for gold & silver only there is no pawning involved. In order for him to make his business permanent the Planning department's requirements won't allow him to open up for a few months, he would like to get a temporary permit from the License Board so that he can start his business now.
